

CONDOMINIUM DECLARATION
FOR
SUNSET WEST CONDOMINIUMS

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS:

THAT WHEREAS, Harold I. Daily, hereinafter called "Declarant", is the owner of the real property situate in the County of Garfield, State of Colorado, described on Exhibit A attached hereto; and

WHEREAS, Declarant desires to establish a condominium project under the Condominium Ownership Act of the State of Colorado; and

WHEREAS, by this Declaration a plan is established for the separate ownership of the condominium units and for submitting the above-described property to condominium use;

NOW, THEREFORE, Declarant does hereby publish and declare that the following terms, covenants, conditions, easements, restrictions, uses, limitations and obligations shall be deemed to run with the land, shall be a burden and a benefit to Declarant, his successors and assigns and any person acquiring or owning an interest in the real property and improvements, their grantees, successors, heirs, executors, administrators, devisees or assigns.

I

DEFINITIONS

1.1 Association: "Association" or "Association of Unit Owners" means the Association formed as a nonprofit Colorado corporation bearing the name of this condominium project. The Certificate of Incorporation and By-Laws of the Association shall govern the administration of this condominium property. The members of the Association shall be all of the owners of the condominium units.

1.2 Building: "Building" means any building constructed on the real property which contains units.

1.3 Common Elements: "Common Elements" means all of the project except all units.

1.4 Common Expenses: "Common Expenses" means and includes expenses for maintenance, repair, operation, management and administration. It includes expenses declared common expenses by the provisions of the Declaration and the By-Laws of the Association as well as sums lawfully assessed against the general common elements by the Board of Directors of the Association and expenses agreed upon as common expenses by the Association.

1.5 Condominium Unit: "Condominium Unit" means the fee simple interest and title in and to a unit together with the undivided interest in the general common elements and the appurtenant limited common elements (expressed as a fraction of the entire ownership interest in the common elements).

1.6 Declarant: "Declarant" means Harold I. Daily, together with his successors and assigns.

1.7 General Common Elements: "General Common Elements" means all common elements except limited common elements.

1.8 Limited Common Elements: "Limited Common Elements" means any common elements designated herein for the exclusive use of owners of particular condominium units. Structural separations between units or the space which would be occupied by such structural separations may become limited common elements for the exclusive use of the owner or owners of the units on either side thereof as provided in paragraph 3.2, "Right to Combine Units". Certain balconies, porches, patios, and automobile parking spaces are identified on the condominium map as limited common elements for the exclusive use of the owners of particular condominium units. Balconies, porches, patios, or automobile parking space which are not so identified shall be general common elements.

1.9 Map: "Map" means and includes "Condominium Map" or "Supplemental Map" and shall be that instrument reflecting the engineering survey of the land which depicts and locates thereon all of the improvements, the floor and elevation plans, and any other drawings or diagrammatic plans depicting a part of or all of the improvements and lands.

1.10 Mortgage: "Mortgage" means any mortgage, deed of trust, or other security instrument by which a condominium unit or any part thereof is encumbered.

1.11 Mortgagee: "Mortgagee" means any person named as the mortgagee or beneficiary under a deed of trust or mortgage under which the interest of any owner is encumbered, or any successor to the interest of such person under such deed of trust or mortgage.

1.12 Owner: "Owner" means any person or entity, including Declarant, at any time owning a condominium unit. The term "Owner" shall not refer to any mortgagee unless such mortgagee has acquired title pursuant to foreclosure or any proceeding in lieu of foreclosure.

1.13 Project: "Project" means the real property and all buildings and other improvements erected upon the real property.

1.14 Unit: "Unit" means an individual air space unit consisting of enclosed rooms occupying part of a building and bounded by the interior surfaces of the walls, floors, ceilings, windows, doors and built-in fireplaces, if any, along the perimeter boundaries of the air space as said boundaries are shown on the condominium map together with all fixtures and improvements therein contained. Notwithstanding the fact that they may be within the boundaries of such air space, the following are not part of a unit insofar as they are necessary for the support or full use and enjoyment of another unit:

- a. Bearing walls.
- b. Beams.
- c. Girders.
- d. Columns.
- e. Floors.
- f. Ceilings.
- g. Roofs (except the interior surfaces thereof).
- h. Foundations.
- i. Space heating or cooling equipment and water heating or cooling equipment, if any.
- j. Tanks.
- k. Pumps.
- l. Pipes.
- m. Vents.
- n. Ducts.
- o. Shafts.
- p. Flues.
- q. Chutes.
- r. Conduits.
- s. Wires and other utility installations, except the outlets thereof when located within the unit.

The interior surfaces of a window or door means the points at which such surfaces are located when such windows or doors are closed.

II

INTENTION AND PURPOSE

2.1 Declaration: Declarant declares that the project and every part thereof is held and shall be held, conveyed, devised, leased, rented, encumbered, used, occupied and improved and otherwise affected in any manner subject to the provisions of this declaration. Each and all of the provisions of this declaration are hereby declared to be in furtherance of the general plan and scheme of condominium ownership referred to herein and are further declared to be for the benefit of the project and every part thereof and for the benefit of each owner.

2.2 Applicable Law: The applicable law of the condominium project is established under the Condominium Ownership Act of the State of Colorado, as amended.

2.3 Plan for Ownership: Declarant hereby does establish a plan for the ownership in fee simple of the real property estates consisting of the area or space contained in each of the air space units in the building improvements and the co-ownership by the individual and separate owners thereof as tenants-in-common of all the remaining property which property is referred to as the general common elements.

2.4 Covenants Running with the Land: All provisions of this condominium declaration shall be deemed to run with the land as covenants or as equitable servitudes as the case may be. These covenants shall be a burden and a benefit to Declarant, its successors and assigns, and any person acquiring or owning an interest in the real property and improvements, their grantees, successors, heirs, executors, administrators, devisees or assigns.

III

NATURE OF CONDOMINIUM OWNERSHIP

3.1 Estates of an Owner: The project is divided hereby into condominium units. Each such unit consists of a fee simple interest in a unit and an undivided fee simple interest in the common elements in accordance with the attached Exhibit "B", which interest is hereby declared to be appurtenant to such unit. Subject to the limitations contained in this declaration, any owner shall have the nonexclusive right to use and enjoy the general common elements. As an owner he shall have the exclusive right to use and enjoy any limited common elements which may be designated for such exclusive use.

3.2 Right to Combine Units: With the written consent of Declarant (or the written consent of the Board of Directors if Declarant owns less than two of the units) two or more units may be utilized by the owner or owners thereof as if they were one unit. To the extent permitted in the written consent any walls, floors or other structural separation between any two such units, or any space which would be occupied by such structural separations but for the utilization of the two units as one unit may, for so long as the two units are utilized as one unit, be utilized by the owner or owners of the adjoining units as limited common elements, except to the extent that any such structural separations are necessary or contain facilities necessary for the support, use or enjoyment of other parts of the project. At any time, upon the request of the owner of one of such adjoining, combined units, any opening between the two units which, but for joint utilization of the two units, would have been occupied by a structural separation, shall be closed. Such closure shall be at the equal expense of the owners of each of the two units affected and the structural separations between the two units shall thereupon become limited common elements.

3.3 Title: Title to a condominium unit may be held or owned by any entity and in any manner in which title to any other real property may be held or owned in the State of Colorado.

3.4 Inseparability: No portion of a condominium unit may be separated from any other portion thereof during the period of condominium ownership prescribed herein. Each unit and the undivided interest in the common elements appurtenant to such unit shall always be conveyed, devised, encumbered, and otherwise affected only as a complete condominium unit. Every gift, devise, bequest, transfer, encumbrance, conveyance or other disposition of a condominium unit or any part thereof shall be construed to be a gift, devise, bequest, transfer, encumbrance or conveyance respectively of the entire condominium unit together with all appurtenant rights created by law or by this declaration.

3.5 Partition not Permitted: The common elements shall be owned in common by all the owners of condominium units and no owner may bring any action for partition thereof.

3.6 Map: The map shall be filed for record. Each map filed subsequent to the first or initially filed map shall be termed a supplement to such map and the numerical sequence of such supplements shall be shown thereon. Each such map shall depict and show at least the following: The legal description of the land and a survey thereof; the location of the building(s); the floor and elevation plans; the location of the units within the building, both horizontally and vertically; the thickness of the common walls between or separating the units; the location of any structural components or supporting elements of a building located within a unit; and the unit designations. The map shall contain the certificate of a registered professional engineer or licensed architect, or both, certifying that the map substantially depicts the location and the horizontal and vertical measurements of the building, the units, the unit designations, the dimensions of the units and the elevations of the unfinished floors and ceilings as constructed. Each supplement and/or any amendment shall set forth a like certificate when appropriate. In interpreting the map the existing physical boundaries of each separate unit as constructed shall be conclusively presumed to be its boundaries. Declarant reserves the right to amend the map, from time to time, to conform the same according to the actual location of any of the constructed improvements and to establish, vacate and relocate easements, access road easements and on-site parking areas.

3.7 Ad Valorem Taxation: Declarant shall give written notice to the Assessor of Garfield County of the creation of condominium ownership in this property as provided by law so that each unit and the undivided interest in the general common elements appurtenant thereto shall be deemed a parcel and subject to separate assessment and taxation. No forfeiture or sale of any condominium unit for delinquent taxes, assessments or other governmental charges shall divest or in any way affect the title to any other condominium unit.

3.8 Use and Occupancy: Each condominium unit shall be used for residential purposes only, and no trade or business of any kind may be carried on therein. Lease or rental of a condominium unit for lodging or residential purposes shall not be considered to be a violation of this covenant.

3.9 Owner's Rights with Respect to Interiors: Each owner shall have the exclusive right to paint, repaint, tile, wax, paper or otherwise refinish and decorate the interior surfaces of the walls, ceilings, floors and doors forming the boundaries of his unit and all walls, ceilings, floors and doors within such boundaries.

3.10 Easements for Access to Condominium Units: Each condominium unit shall have access to a public street by an access easement shown on the condominium map. In the event Declarant or the Association provides a suitable substitute easement at any time in the future, each owner, by acceptance of a conveyance of a condominium unit, agrees for himself and his successors in interest to reconvey to Declarant upon thirty (30) days' notice by Declarant all of such owner's right, title and interest in the original easement or easements; provided, however, that in any event such notice shall have been given, if at all, on or before December 31, 1990, and the reconveyance shall have been executed and delivered, if at all, on or before July 31, 1991. Each mortgagee, by acceptance of a mortgage on a condominium unit, agrees for himself and his successors in interest to release the original easement or easements from such mortgage upon like notice and subject to like proviso, upon receipt of proper instruments subjecting the suitable substitute easement to the lien of the mortgage, provided that the mortgage shall have the same priority with respect to the substitute easement as it had with respect to the original easement or easements.

3.11 Easements for Encroachments: If any portion of the general common elements encroaches upon a unit or units, a valid easement for the encroachment and for the maintenance of same, so long as it stands, shall and does exist. If any portion of a unit encroaches upon the general common elements, or upon an adjoining unit or units, a valid easement for the encroachment and for the maintenance of same, so long as it stands, shall and does exist. Such encroachments and easements shall not be considered or determined to be encumbrances either on the general common elements or on the units for purposes of marketability of title.

3.12 Easements of Access for Repair, Maintenance and Emergencies: The owners shall have the irrevocable right, to be exercised by the Managing Agent or Board of Directors of the Association, to have access to each unit from time to time during reasonable hours as may be necessary for the maintenance, repair or replacement of any of the general common elements therein or accessible therefrom, or for making emergency repairs therein necessary to prevent damage to the general common elements or to another unit. Damage to the interior or any part of a unit resulting from the maintenance, repair, emergency repair or replacement of any of the general common elements or as a result of emergency repairs within another unit, at the instance of the Association, shall be a common expense of all of the owners; provided, however, that if such damage is the result of the misuse or negligence of a unit owner, then such unit owner shall be responsible and liable for all of such damage. All damaged improvements shall be restored substantially to the same condition in which they existed prior to the damage. All maintenance, repairs and replacements as to the general common elements, whether located inside or outside of units (unless necessitated by the negligence or misuse of a unit owner, in which case such expense shall be charged to such unit owner), shall be the common expense of all of the owners.

3.13 Owner's Right to Ingress and Egress and Support:

Each owner shall have the right to ingress and egress over, upon and across the general common elements necessary for access to his unit, and to any limited common elements designated for use in connection with his unit, and shall have the right to the horizontal and lateral support of his unit, and such rights shall be appurtenant to and pass with the title to each condominium unit.

3.14 Association's Right to Use of Common Elements:

The Association shall have a nonexclusive easement to make such use of the common elements as may be necessary or appropriate to perform the duties and functions which it is obligated or permitted to perform pursuant to this declaration, including the right to construct and maintain in the general common elements maintenance and storage facilities for use by the Association, and to assign particular storage facilities for use by the owners of particular units.

3.15 Easements Deemed Created: All conveyances of condominium units hereafter made, whether by the Declarant or otherwise, shall be construed to grant and reserve such reciprocal easements as are provided for herein, even though no specific reference to such easements appears in any such conveyance.

IV

DESCRIPTION OF A CONDOMINIUM UNIT

4.1 Method of Description: Every contract for the sale of a condominium unit and every other instrument affecting title to a condominium unit may describe that condominium unit by the number shown on the condominium map with the appropriate reference to the condominium map and to this declaration as each appears on the records of the County Clerk and Recorder of Garfield County, Colorado, in the following fashion:

Condominium Unit _____, SUNSET WEST CONDOMINIUMS, according to the condominium map appearing in the records of the County Clerk and Recorder of Garfield County, Colorado, in Book _____ of Maps at page _____, and as defined and described in that

Condominium Declaration for SUNSET
WEST CONDOMINIUMS appearing in such records in Book ____ at page ____.

Such description will be construed to describe the unit, together with the appurtenant undivided interest in the common elements, and to incorporate all the rights incident to ownership of a condominium unit and all the limitations on such ownership as described in this declaration.

USE OF CONDOMINIUM UNITS

5.1. Owner's Maintenance Responsibility: For purposes of maintenance, repair, alteration and remodeling, an owner shall be deemed to own the interior nonsupporting walls, the materials (such as, but not limited to plaster, gypsum dry wall, paneling, wallpaper, paint, wall and floor tile and floorings, but not including the sub-flooring) making up the finished surfaces of unit doors and windows. The owner shall not be deemed to own lines, pipes, wires, conduits or systems (which for brevity are herein and hereafter referred to as utilities) running through his unit which serve one or more other units except as a tenant-in-common with the other owners. Such utilities shall not be disturbed or relocated by an owner without written consent and approval of the Board of Directors. Such right to repair, alter and remodel is coupled with the obligation to replace any finishing or other materials removed with similar or other types or kinds of materials. An owner shall maintain and keep in repair the interior of his own unit, including the fixtures thereof. All fixtures and equipment installed within the unit commencing at the point where the utilities enter the unit shall be maintained and kept in repair by the owner thereof. An owner shall do no act nor any work that will impair the structural soundness or integrity of the building or impair any easement or hereditament. An owner shall also keep the balcony area appurtenant to his unit in a clean and sanitary condition. All other maintenance or repairs to any limited common elements, except as caused or permitted by the owner's negligence, misuse or neglect thereof, shall be a common expense of all of the owners.

5.2 Mechanics' Liens: No labor performed or materials furnished for use in connection with any unit with the consent or at the request of an owner or his agent or subcontractor shall create any right to file a statement of mechanic's lien against the unit of any other owner not expressly consenting to or requesting the same or against any interest in the common elements except as to the undivided interest therein appurtenant to the unit of the owner for whom such labor shall have been performed and such materials shall have been furnished. Each owner shall indemnify and hold harmless each of the other owners from and against liability or loss arising from the claim of any lien against the condominium unit, or any part thereof, of any other owner for labor performed or for materials furnished in work on the first owner's unit. At the written request of any owner the Association shall enforce such indemnity by collecting from the owner of the unit on which the labor was performed and materials furnished the amount necessary to discharge any such lien, including all costs incidental thereto, and obtaining a discharge of the lien. Such collection shall be made by a special assessment, shall be a debt of the assessed owner and a lien on his condominium unit and may be enforced and collected as is provided in paragraph 7.5.

5.3 Use of Common Elements: There shall be no obstruction of the common elements, nor shall anything be kept or stored on any part of the common elements without the prior written consent of the Association, except as specifically provided herein. Nothing shall be altered on, constructed in, or removed from the common elements except upon the prior written consent of the Association.

5.4 Prohibition of Damage and Certain Activities: Nothing shall be done or kept in any unit or in the common elements or any part thereof which would result in the cancellation of the insurance on the project or any part thereof or increase the rate of the insurance on the project or any part thereof over what the Association, but for such activity, would pay, without the prior written consent of the Association. Nothing shall be done or kept in any unit or in the common elements or any part thereof which would be a violation of any statute, rule, ordinance, regulation, permit or other validly imposed requirement of any governmental body. No damage to or waste of the common elements or any part thereof shall be committed by any owner or any invitee of any owner, and each owner shall indemnify and hold the Association and the other owners harmless against all loss resulting from any such damage or waste caused by him or his invitees. No noxious, destructive or offensive activity shall be carried on in any unit or in the common elements of any part thereof, nor shall anything be done therein which may be or may become an annoyance or nuisance to any other owner or to any person at any time lawfully residing in the project.

5.5 Animals: The Association may by rules and regulations prohibit or limit the raising, breeding, or keeping of animals in any unit or on the common elements or any part thereof.

5.6 Rules and Regulations: No owner shall violate the rules and regulations for the use of the units and of the common elements as adopted from time to time by the Association.

5.7 Maintenance of Interiors: Each owner shall keep the interior of his unit including, without limitation, interior walls, windows, glass, ceilings, floors and permanent fixtures and appurtenances thereto in a clean, sanitary and attractive condition, and good state of repair.

5.8 Structural Alterations: No structural alterations to any unit shall be made, and no plumbing, electrical or similar work within the common elements shall be done by any owner without the prior written consent of the Association.

VI

OWNERS OF THE ASSOCIATION

6.1 Membership: Every owner shall be entitled and required to be a member of the Association. If title to a condominium unit is held by more than one person, the membership related to that condominium unit shall be shared by all such persons in the same proportionate interests and by the same type of tenancy in which the title to the condominium unit is held. An owner shall be entitled to one membership for each condominium unit owned by him. Each such membership shall be appurtenant to the condominium unit upon which it is based and shall be transferred automatically by conveyance of that condominium unit. No person or entity other than an owner may be a member of the Association, and a membership in the Association may not be transferred except in connection with the transfer of a condominium unit; provided, however, that the rights of membership may be assigned to a mortgagee as further security for a loan secured by a lien on a condominium unit.

6.2 Voting Rights: The rights of all members of the Association shall be identical except with respect to voting. The number of votes to which each membership is entitled shall be the numerator of the fraction representing that member's undivided interest in the common elements, as set forth in Exhibit B.

6.3 Transfer: Except as otherwise expressly stated herein, any of the rights, interests and obligations of the Association set forth herein or reserved herein may be transferred or assigned to any other person or entity; provided, however, that no such transfer or assignment shall relieve the Association of any of the obligations set forth herein. Any such transfer or assignment shall not revoke or change any of the rights or obligations of any owners as set forth herein.

VII

CERTAIN RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF THE ASSOCIATION

7.1 The Common Elements: The Association, subject to the rights of the owners set forth in this declaration, shall be responsible for the exclusive management and control of the common elements and all improvements thereon (including furnishings and equipment related thereto), and shall keep the same in good clean, attractive and sanitary condition, order and repair; provided, however, that each owner of a condominium unit shall keep the limited common elements designated for use in connection with his unit, in a good, clean, sanitary and attractive condition. The Association shall be responsible for the maintenance and repair of exterior surfaces of the building, including, without limitation, the painting of the same as often as necessary, the replacement of trim and caulking, the maintenance and repair of roofs; the maintenance and repair of other common elements, including utility lines and all other improvements or material located within or used in connection with the common elements, and the maintenance and repair of areas and structures constituting part of the general and limited common elements.

7.2 Additions, Alterations and Improvements of General And Limited Common Elements: There shall be no additions, alterations or improvements of or to the general and limited common elements by the Association requiring an expenditure in excess of Five Hundred Dollars per unit in any one calendar year without prior approval of a majority of the owners, and such expenditures shall be a common expense. Such limitation shall not be applicable to the replacement, repair, maintenance or obsolescence of any general or limited common element or common personal property.

7.3 Assessment for Common Expenses: All owners shall be obligated to pay the assessments, either estimated or actual, imposed by the Board of Directors of the Association to meet the common expenses. The assessments shall be made according to each owner's percentage or fractional interest in and to the general common elements. The limited common elements shall be maintained as general common elements and owners having exclusive use thereof shall not be subject to any special charges or assessments for the repair or maintenance thereof except as provided in paragraph 7.2. Assessments for the estimated common expenses shall be due in advance on the first day of each calendar quarter or more frequently as may be determined by the Board of Directors or Managing Agent. The Managing Agent or the Board of Directors shall prepare and deliver or mail to each owner a statement for the estimated or actual common expenses.

In the event the ownership of a condominium unit, title to which is derived from Declarant, commences on a day other than the first day of the assessment period, the assessment for that period shall be prorated. The assessments made shall be based upon the cash requirements deemed to be such aggregate sum as the Managing Agent, or if there is no Managing Agent, then the Board of Directors of the Association, shall from time to time determine is to be paid by all of the condominium unit owners, including Declarant, to provide for the payment of all estimated expenses growing out of or connected with the maintenance, repair, operation, additions, alterations and improvements of and to the general common elements, which sum may include, but shall not be limited to, expenses of management; taxes and special assessments until separately assessed; premiums for fire insurance with extended coverage and vandalism and malicious mischief with endorsements attached issued in the amount of the maximum replacement value of all of the condominium units (including all fixtures, interior walls and partitions, decorated and finished surfaces of perimeter walls, floors and ceilings, doors, windows, and other elements or materials comprising a part of the units); casualty and public liability and other insurance premiums; landscaping and care of grounds; common lighting and heating repairs and renovations; trash and garbage collections; wages; common water and sewer charges; legal and accounting fees; management and rental fees; expenses and liabilities incurred by the Managing Agent or Board of Directors on behalf of the unit owners under or by reason of this declaration and the By-Laws of the Association; for any deficit remaining from a previous period; the creation of a reasonable contingency, reserve, working capital and sinking funds as well as other costs and expenses relating to the general common elements. The omission or failure of the Board of Directors to fix the assessment for any period shall not be deemed a waiver, modification or a release of the owners from their obligation to pay the same. The Association may require each owner to deposit and maintain with the Association an amount equal to one quarterly estimated assessment for use as working capital.

7.4 Owner's Personal Obligation for Payment of Assessments:

The amount of the common expenses assessed against each condominium unit shall be the personal and individual debt of the owner thereof. No owner may exempt himself from liability for his contribution towards the common expenses by waiver of the use or enjoyment of any of the common elements or by abandonment of his unit. Both the Board of Directors and the Managing Agent shall have the responsibility to take prompt action to collect any unpaid assessment which remains unpaid more than 10 days from the due date for payment thereof. In the event of default in the payment of the assessment, the unit owner shall be obligated to pay interest at the rate of 12% per annum on the amount of the assessment from due date thereof, together with all expenses, including attorney's fees, incurred together with such late charges as provided by the By-Laws of the Association. Suit to recover a money judgment for unpaid common expenses shall be maintainable without foreclosing or waiving the lien securing same.

7.5 Assessment Lien: All sums assessed but unpaid for the share of common expenses chargeable to any condominium unit shall constitute a lien on such unit superior to all other liens and encumbrances, except only for tax and special assessment liens on the unit in favor of any assessing governmental authority and all sums unpaid on a first mortgage or first deed of trust of record, including all unpaid obligatory sums as may be provided by such encumbrance. To evidence such lien the Board of Directors or the Managing Agent shall prepare a written notice of lien assessment setting forth the amount of such unpaid indebtedness, the amount of the accrued interest and late charges thereon, the name of the owner of the condominium unit and a description of the condominium unit. Such a notice shall be signed by one of the Board of Directors or by one of the officers of the Association or by the Managing Agent and shall be recorded in the office of the Clerk and Recorder of Garfield County, Colorado. Such lien shall attach from the due date of the assessment. Such lien may be enforced by the foreclosure of the defaulting owner's condominium unit by the Association in like manner as a mortgage on real property upon the recording of a notice or claim thereof. In any such proceedings the owner shall be required to pay the costs, expenses and attorney's fees incurred for filing the lien, and in the event of foreclosure proceedings, all additional costs, all expenses and reasonable attorney's fees incurred. The owner of the condominium unit being foreclosed shall be required to pay to the Association the monthly assessments for the condominium unit during the period of foreclosure, and the Association shall have the power to bid on the condominium unit at foreclosure or other legal sale and to acquire and hold, lease, mortgage, vote the votes appurtenant to, convey or otherwise deal with the same. Any encumbrancer holding a lien on a condominium unit may pay, but shall not be required to pay, any unpaid common expenses payable with respect to such unit, and upon such payment such encumbrancer shall have a lien on such unit for the amounts paid of the same rank as the lien of his encumbrance without the necessity of having to record a notice or claim of such lien. Upon request of a mortgagee, the Association shall report to the mortgagee of a condominium unit any unpaid assessments remaining unpaid for longer than 25 days after the same are due; provided, however, that a mortgagee shall have furnished to the Managing Agent or to the Board of Directors notice of such encumbrance.

7.6 Liability for Common Expense Upon Transfer of Condominium Unit is Joint: Upon payment to the Managing

Agent, or if there is no Managing Agent, then to the Board of Directors of the Association, of a reasonable fee not to exceed $25.00 and upon the written request of any owner or any mortgagee or prospective mortgagee of a condominium unit, the Association, by its Managing Agent, or if there is no Managing Agent, then by the financial officer of the Association, shall issue a written statement setting forth the amount of the unpaid common expenses, if any, with respect to the subject unit, the amount of the current monthly assessment and the date that such assessment becomes due, credit for any advanced payments of common assessments, for prepaid items, such as insurance premiums, but not including accumulated amounts for reserves or sinking funds, if any, which statement shall be conclusive upon the Association in favor of all persons who rely thereon in good faith. Unless such request for a statement of indebtedness shall be complied with within 10 days, all unpaid common expenses which become due prior to the date of making such request shall be subordinate to the rights of the person requesting such statement. The grantee of a condominium unit shall be jointly and severally liable with the grantor for all unpaid assessments against the latter for the unpaid common assessments up to the time of the grant or conveyance without prejudice to the grantee's right to recover from the grantor the amounts paid by the grantee therefore; provided, however, that upon payment of a reasonable fee not to exceed $25.00 as is provided hereinabove, and upon written request, any such prospective grantee shall be entitled to a statement from the Managing Agent, or if there is no Managing Agent, then from the financial officer of the Association, setting forth the amount of the unpaid assessments, if any, with respect to the subject condominium unit, the amount of the current monthly assessment, the date that such assessment becomes due, and credits for any advanced payments of common assessments, prepaid items, such as insurance premiums, which statement shall be conclusive upon the Association. Unless such request for such a statement shall be complied with within 10 days after such request, then such requesting grantee shall not be liable for, nor shall the unit conveyed be subject to a lien for any unpaid assessments against the subject unit. The provisions set forth in this paragraph shall not apply to the initial sales and conveyances of the condominium units made by Declarant, and such sales shall be free from all common expenses to the date of conveyance made or to a date as agreed upon by Declarant and Declarant's grantee.

7.7 Personal Property for Common Use: The Association may acquire and hold for the use and benefit of all of the owners tangible and intangible personal property and may dispose of the same by sale or otherwise, and the beneficial interest in any such property shall be deemed to be owned by the owners in the same proportion as their respective interests in the common elements. Such interest shall not be transferable except with the transfer of a condominium unit. A transfer of a condominium unit shall transfer to the transferee ownership of the transferor's beneficial interest in such property without any reference thereto. Each owner may use such property in accordance with the purpose for which it is intended without hindering or encroaching upon the lawful rights or other owners. The transfer of title to a condominium unit under foreclosure shall entitle the purchaser to the interest in such personal property associated with the foreclosed condominium unit.

7.8 Rules and Regulations: The Association may make reasonable rules and regulations governing the use of the units and of the common elements, which rules and regulations shall be consistent with the rights and duties established in this declaration. Such rules and regulations may include, without limitation:

- (1) Regulations with respect to use of any automobile, parking spaces which constitute general common elements, and
- (2) Assignment of particular portions of storage areas within the common elements for exclusive use by owners of particular condominium units.

The Association may suspend any owner's voting rights in the Association during any period or periods during which such owner fails to comply with such rules and regulations, or with any other obligations of such owner under this declaration.

The Association may also take judicial action against any owner to enforce compliance with such rules, regulations or other obligations or to obtain damages for noncompliance, all to the extent permitted by law.

7.9 Implied Rights: The Association may exercise any other right or privilege given to it expressly by this declaration or by law, and every other right or privilege reasonably to be implied from the existence of any right or privilege given to it herein or reasonably necessary to effectuate any such right or privilege.

7.10 Miscellaneous Services: The Association may obtain and pay for the services of any person or entity to manage its affairs, or any part thereof, to the extent it deems advisable, as well as such other personnel as the Association shall determine to be necessary or desirable for the proper operation of the project, whether such personnel are furnished or employed directly by the Association or by any person or entity with whom or which it contracts. The Association may obtain and pay for legal and accounting services necessary or desirable in connection with the operation of the project or the enforcement of this declaration. The Association may arrange with others to furnish lighting, heating, water, trash collection, sewer service and other common services to each unit.

7.11 Personal Liability of Purchaser for Assessments: Except as provided in paragraph 7.6, a purchaser of a condominium unit shall be jointly and severally liable with the seller for all unpaid assessments against the condominium unit up to the time of the grant or conveyance, without prejudice to the purchaser's right to recover from the seller the amount paid by the purchaser for such assessments.

VIII

ASSOCIATION AS ATTORNEY-IN-FACT

8.1 Appointment of Association as Attorney-in-Fact:

This declaration does hereby make mandatory the irrevocable appointment of an attorney-in-fact to deal with the property upon its destruction, for repair, reconstruction or obsolescence.

Title to any condominium unit is declared and expressly made subject to the terms and conditions hereof, and acceptance by any grantee of a deed or other instrument of conveyance from the Declarant or from any owner or grantor shall constitute appointment of the attorney-in-fact herein provided. All of the owners irrevocably constitute and appoint the Association their true and lawful attorney in their name, place and stead for the purpose of dealing with the property upon its destruction or obsolescence as is hereinafter provided.

8.2 Authority of Attorney-in-Fact: As attorney-in-fact, the Association, by its President and Secretary or Assistant Secretary, shall have full and complete authorization, right and power to make, execute and deliver any contract, deed or any other instrument with respect to the interest of a condominium unit owner which are necessary and appropriate to exercise the powers herein granted. Repair and reconstruction of the improvements as used in the succeeding paragraphs means restoring the improvements to substantially the same condition in which they existed prior to the damage, with each unit and the general and limited common elements having substantially the same vertical and horizontal boundaries as before. The proceeds of any insurance collected shall be available to the Association for the purpose of repair, restoration, reconstruction or replacements unless the owners and all first mortgagees agree not to rebuild in accordance with the provisions set forth hereinafter.

(a) In the event of damage or destruction due to fire or other disaster, the insurance proceeds, if sufficient to reconstruct the improvements, shall be applied by the Association, as attorney-in-fact, to such reconstruction, and the improvements shall be promptly repaired and reconstructed. The Association shall have full authority, right and power, as attorney-in-fact, to cause the repair and restoration of the improvements.

(b) If the insurance proceeds are insufficient to repair and reconstruct the improvements, and if such damage is not more than 60% of all of the condominium units (the whole property), not including land, such damage or destruction shall be promptly repaired and reconstructed by the Association, as attorney-in-fact, using the proceeds of insurance and the proceeds of an assessment to be made against all of the owners and their condominium units. Such deficiency assessment shall be a common expense and made pro rata according to each owner's percentage interest in the general common elements and shall be due and payable within 30 days after written notice thereof. The Association shall have full authority, right and power, as attorney-in-fact, to cause the repair or restoration of the improvements using all of the insurance proceeds for such purpose notwithstanding the failure of an owner to pay the assessment. The assessment provided for herein shall be a debt of each owner and a lien on his condominium unit and may be enforced and collected as is provided in paragraph 7.5. In addition thereto, the Association, as attorney-in-fact, shall have the absolute right and power to sell the condominium unit of any owner refusing or failing to pay such deficiency assessment within the time provided, and if not so paid, the Association shall cause to be recorded a notice that the condominium unit of the delinquent owner shall be sold by the Association, as attorney-in-fact, pursuant to the provisions of this paragraph. The delinquent owner shall be required to pay to the Association the costs and expenses for filing the notices, interest at the rate of 12% per annum on the amount of the assessment and all reasonable attorney's fees. The proceeds derived from the sale of such condominium unit shall be used and disbursed by the Association, as attorney-in-fact, in the following order:

- (1) For payment of taxes and special assessment liens in favor of any assessing entity and the customary expense of sale;

- (2) For payment of the balance of the lien of any first mortgage;
 - (3) For payment of unpaid common expenses and all costs, expenses and fees incurred by the Association;
 - (4) For payment of junior liens and encumbrances in the order of and to the extent of their priority; and
 - (5) The balance remaining, if any, shall be paid to the condominium unit owner.
- (c) If the insurance proceeds are insufficient to repair and reconstruct the damaged improvements, and if such damage is more than 60% of all of the condominium units (the whole property), not including land, and if the owners representing an aggregate ownership interest of 51% or more of the general common elements do not voluntarily, within 90 days thereafter, make provisions for reconstruction, which plan must have the unanimous approval or consent of every first mortgagee, the Association shall forthwith record a notice setting forth such fact or facts, and upon the recording of such notice by the Association's President and Secretary or Assistant Secretary, the entire remaining premises shall be sold by the Association pursuant to the provisions of this paragraph, as attorney-in-fact for all of the owners, free and clear of the provisions contained in this declaration, the map and the By-Laws. The insurance settlement proceeds shall be collected by the Association, and such proceeds shall be divided by the Association according to each owner's percentage interest in the general common elements, and such divided proceeds shall be paid into separate accounts, each such account representing one of the condominium units. Each such account shall be in the name of the Association, and shall be further identified by the condominium unit designation and the name of the owner. From each separate account the Association, as attorney-in-fact, shall forthwith use and disburse the total amount of each of such accounts, without contribution from one account to another, toward the partial or full payment of the lien of any first mortgage against the condominium unit represented by such separate account. Each such account shall be supplemented by the apportioned amount of the proceeds obtained from the sale of the entire property. Such apportionment shall be based upon each condominium unit owner's percentage interest in the general common elements. The total funds of each account shall be used and disbursed, without contribution from one account to another, by the Association, as attorney-in-fact, for the same purposes and in the same order as is provided in subparagraph (b)(1) through (5) of this paragraph.

8.3 Plan for Reconstruction: If the owners representing an aggregate ownership interest of 51% or more of the general common elements adopt a plan for reconstruction, which plan has the unanimous approval of all first mortgagees, then all of the owners shall be bound by the terms and other provisions of such plan. Any assessment made in connection with such plan shall be a common expense and made pro rata according to each owner's percentage interest in the general common elements and shall be due and payable as provided by the terms of such plan, but not sooner than 30 days after written notice thereof. The Association shall have full authority, right and power, as attorney-in-fact, to cause the repair or restoration of improvements using all of the insurance proceeds for such purpose notwithstanding the failure of an owner to pay the assessment. The assessment provided for herein shall be a debt of each owner and a lien on his condominium unit and may be enforced and collected as is provided in paragraph 7.5. In addition thereto, the Association, as attorney-in-fact, shall have the absolute right and power to sell the condominium unit of any owner refusing or failing to pay such assessment within the time provided, and if not so paid, the Association shall cause to be recorded a notice that the condominium unit of the delinquent owner shall be sold by the Association. The delinquent owner shall be required to pay to the Association the costs and expenses for filing the notices, interest at the rate of 12% per annum on the amount of the assessment and all reasonable attorney's fees. The proceeds derived from the sale of such condominium unit shall be used disbursed by the Association, as attorney-in-fact, for the same purposes and in the same order as is provided in subparagraph (b)(1) through (5) of paragraph 8.2.

8.4 Renewal and Reconstruction: The owners representing an aggregate ownership interest of 80% or more of the general common elements may agree that the general common elements are obsolete and adopt a plan for the renewal and reconstruction, if such plan has the unanimous approval of all first mortgages of record at the time of the adoption of such plan. If a plan for the renewal or reconstruction is adopted, notice of such plan shall be recorded and the expenses of renewal and reconstruction shall be payable by all of the owners as common expenses; provided, however that an owner not a party to such a plan for renewal or reconstruction may give written notice to the Association within 15 days after the date of adoption of such plan then such unit shall be purchased by the Association for the fair market value thereof. The Association shall then have 30 days thereafter within which to cancel such plan. If such plan is not cancelled, the condominium unit of the requesting owner shall be purchased according to the following procedures. If such owner and the Association can agree on the fair market value thereof, then such sale shall be consummated within 30 days thereafter. If the parties are unable to agree, the date when either party notifies the other that he or it is unable to agree with the other shall be the "commencement date" from which all periods of time mentioned herein shall be measured. Within 10 days following the commencement date, each party shall nominate in writing (and give notice of such nomination to the other party) an appraiser. If either party fails to make such a nomination, the appraiser nominated shall, within 5 days after default by the other party, appoint and associate with him another appraiser. If the two designated or selected appraisers are unable to agree, they shall appoint another appraiser to be umpire between them, if they can agree on such person. If they are unable to agree upon such umpire, each appraiser previously appointed shall nominate two appraisers, and from the names of the four appraisers so nominated one shall be drawn by lot by any judge of any court of record in Garfield County, Colorado, and the name so drawn shall be such umpire. The nominations from whom the umpire is to be drawn by lot shall be submitted within 10 days of the failure of the appraisers to agree, which, in any event, shall not be later than 10 days following the appointment of the second appraiser. The decision of the appraisers as to the fair market value, or in the case of their disagreement, then such decision of the umpire, shall be final and binding. The expenses and fees of such appraisers shall be borne equally by the Association and the owner. The sale shall be consummated within 15 days after issuance of the decision as to appraised value, and the Association, as attorney-in-fact, shall disburse such proceeds for the same purposes and in the same order as is provided in subparagraph (b)(1) through (5) of paragraph 3.2 except as modified herein.

8.5 Sale of Obsolete Units: The owners representing an aggregate ownership interest of 80% or more of the general common elements may agree that the condominium units are obsolete and that the same should be sold. Such plan must have the unanimous approval of every first mortgagee. In such instance, the Association shall forthwith record a notice setting forth such fact or facts, and upon the recording of such notice by the Association's President and Secretary or Assistant Secretary, the entire premises shall be sold by the Association, as attorney-in-fact for all of the owners, free and clear of the provisions contained in this declaration, the map and the By-Laws. The sales proceeds shall be apportioned between the owners on the basis of each owner's percentage interest in the general common elements, and such apportioned proceeds shall be paid into separate accounts, each such account representing one condominium unit. Each such account shall be in the name of the Association, and shall be further identified by the condominium unit designation and the name of the owner. From each separate account the Association, as attorney-in-fact, shall use and disburse the total amount of each of such accounts, without contribution from one account to another, for the same purposes and in the same order as is provided in subparagraph (b)(1) through (5) of paragraph 8.2.

9.6 Personal Property for Common Use: The Association, as attorney-in-fact for all of the owners, may acquire and hold for the use and benefit of all of the condominium unit owners, real, tangible and intangible personal property and may dispose of the same by sale or otherwise. The beneficial interest in any such property shall be owned by all of the condominium unit owners in the same proportion as their respective interests in the general common elements, and such interest therein shall not be transferable except with a conveyance of a condominium unit. A conveyance of a condominium unit shall transfer to the grantee ownership of the grantor's beneficial interest in such property without any reference thereto in the deed. Each owner may use such property in accordance with the purpose for which it is intended without hindering or encroaching upon the lawful rights of the other owners. The transfer of title to a condominium unit under foreclosure shall entitle the purchaser to the beneficial interest in such personal property associated with the foreclosed condominium unit.

IX

INSURANCE

9.1 Types of Insurance: The Association shall obtain and keep in full force and effect at all times the following insurance coverage provided by companies duly authorized to do business in the State of Colorado. The provisions of this article shall not be construed to limit the power or authority of the Association to obtain and maintain insurance coverage, in addition to any insurance coverage required hereunder, in such amounts and in such forms as the Association may deem appropriate from time to time.

(a) Casualty Insurance: The Association shall obtain insurance on the project in such amounts as shall provide for full replacement thereof in the event of damage or destruction from the casualty against which such insurance is obtained, all in the manner in which a corporation owning similar multiple family residential buildings in the vicinity of the project would, in the exercise of prudent business judgment, obtain such insurance. Such insurance shall include fire and extended coverage, vandalism and malicious mischief, war risk insurance if available and if deemed appropriate by the Association, and such other risks and hazards against which the Association shall deem it appropriate to provide insurance protection. The Association may comply with the above requirements by the purchase of blanket coverage and may elect such "deductible" provisions as in the Association's opinion are consistent with good business practice.

(b) Public Liability and Property Damage Insurance:

The Association shall purchase broad form comprehensive liability coverage in such amounts and in such forms as it deems advisable to provide adequate protection. Coverage shall include, without limitation, liability for personal injuries, operation of automobiles on behalf of the Association, and activities in connection with the ownership, operation, maintenance and other use of the project.

(c) Workmen's Compensation and Employer's Liability Insurance: The Association shall purchase workmen's compensation and employer's liability insurance and all other similar insurance in respect to employees of the Association in the amounts and in the forms now or hereafter required by law.

(d) Fidelity Insurance: The Association shall purchase, in such amounts and in such forms as it shall deem appropriate, coverage against dishonesty of employees, destruction or disappearance of money or securities, and forgery.

(e) Other: The Association may obtain insurance against such other risks, of a similar or dissimilar nature, as it shall deem appropriate with respect to the project, including any personal property of the Association located thereon.

9.2 Personal Property Casualty Insurance: The Association may in its discretion elect to obtain insurance on the personal property and furnishings initially placed in the units of owners by Declarant upon completion of construction of the project in such amounts as shall provide for the full replacement thereof in the event of damage or destruction from casualty against which such insurance is obtained.

9.3 Form: Casualty insurance shall be carried in a form or forms naming the Association the insured, as trustee for the owners and for Declarant, whether or not it is an owner, which policy or policies shall specify the interest of each condominium unit owner (owner's name, unit number, the appurtenant undivided interest in the common elements), and which policy or policies shall provide a standard, noncontributory mortgagee clause in favor of each first mortgagee which from time to time shall give notice to the Association of such first mortgage. Each policy also shall provide that it cannot be canceled by either the insured or the insurance company until after 10 days' prior written notice is first given to each owner, to Declarant and to each first mortgagee. The Association shall furnish to each owner a true copy of such policy together with a certificate identifying the interest of the owner. All policies of insurance shall provide that the insurance thereunder shall be invalidated or suspended only in respect to the interest of any particular owner guilty of breach of warranty, act, omission, negligence or noncompliance with any provision of such policy, including payment of the insurance premium applicable to that owner's interest, or who permits or fails to prevent the happening of any event, whether occurring before or after a loss, which under the provisions of such policy would otherwise invalidate or suspend the entire policy. All policies of insurance shall provide further that the insurance under any such policy, as to the interest of all other insured owners not guilty of any such act of omission, shall not be invalidated or suspended and shall remain in full force and effect.

Public liability and property damage insurance shall name the Association the insured, as trustee for the owners and for Declarant, whether or not it is an owner, and shall protect each owner and Declarant against liability for acts of the Association in connection with the ownership, operation, maintenance or other use of the project.

9.4 Owner's Responsibility: Insurance coverage on the furnishings initially placed in the unit by Declarant, except to the extent that the Association pursuant to paragraph 9.2 hereof elects to arrange for casualty insurance, and, regardless of the Association's election, insurance coverage against loss from theft on all personal property, and insurance coverage on items of personal property placed in the unit by owner, and casualty and public liability insurance coverage within each individual unit and for activities of the owner, not acting by the Association, with respect to the common elements shall be the responsibility of the respective owners.

9.5 Insurance Proceeds: The Association shall receive the proceeds of any casualty insurance payments received under policies obtained and maintained pursuant to this article. To the extent that reconstruction is required herein, the proceeds shall be used for such purpose. To the extent that reconstruction is not required herein and there is a determination that the project shall not be rebuilt, the proceeds shall be distributed in the same manner herein provided in the event of sale of obsolete units.

9.6 Owner's Own Insurance: Notwithstanding the provisions hereof, each owner may obtain insurance at his own expense providing coverage upon his condominium unit, his personal property, for his personal liability, and covering such other risks as he may deem appropriate, but each such policy shall provide that it does not diminish the insurance carrier's coverage for liability arising under insurance policies which the Association obtains pursuant to this article. All such insurance of the owner's condominium unit shall waive the insurance company's right of subrogation against the Association, the other owners, and the servants, agents, guests of any of them, if such insurance can be obtained in the normal practice without additional premium charge for the waiver of rights of subrogation.

CONDEMNATION

10.1 Consequences of Condemnation: If at any time or times during the continuance of the condominium ownership pursuant to this declaration, all or any part of the project shall be taken or condemned by any public authority or sold or otherwise disposed of in lieu of or in avoidance thereof, the following provisions shall apply.

10.2 Proceeds: All compensation, damages, or other proceeds therefrom, the sum of which is hereinafter called the "Condemnation Award", shall be payable to the Association.

10.3 Complete Taking: In the event that the entire project is taken or condemned, or sold or otherwise disposed of in lieu of or in avoidance thereof, the condominium ownership pursuant thereto shall terminate. The condemnation award shall be apportioned among the owners in proportion to their respective undivided interests in the common elements, provided that if a standard different from the value of the project as a whole is employed to measure the condemnation award in the negotiation, judicial decree, or otherwise, then in determining such shares the same standard shall be employed to the extent it is relevant and applicable.

On the basis of the principle set forth in the last preceding paragraph, the Association shall as soon as practicable determine the share of the condemnation award to which each owner is entitled. Such shares shall be paid into separate accounts and disbursed as soon as practicable in the same manner provided in paragraph 8.5 of this declaration.

10.4 Partial Taking: In the event that less than the entire project is taken or condemned, the condominium ownership hereunder shall not terminate. Each owner shall be entitled to a share of the condemnation award to be determined in the following manner: As soon as practicable the Association shall, reasonably and in good faith, allocate the condemnation award between compensation, damages, or other proceeds, and shall apportion the amounts so allocated among the owners as follows: (a) the total amount allocated to taking of or injury to the common elements shall be apportioned among owners in proportion to their respective undivided interests in the common elements, (b) the total amount allocated to severance damages shall be apportioned to those condominium units which were not taken or condemned, (c) the respective amounts allocated to the taking of or injury to a particular unit and/or improvements an owner has made within his own unit shall be apportioned to the particular unit involved, and (d) the total amount allocated to consequential damages and any other takings or injuries shall be apportioned as the Association determines to be equitable in the circumstances. If an allocation of the condemnation award is already established in negotiation, judicial decree, or otherwise, then in allocating the condemnation award the Association shall employ such allocation to the extent it is relevant and applicable. Distribution of apportioned proceeds shall be made by checks payable jointly to the respective owners and their respective mortgagees.

10.5 Reorganization: In the event a partial taking results in the taking of a complete unit, the owner thereof automatically shall cease to be a member of the Association. Thereafter the Association shall reallocate the ownership, voting rights, and assessment ratio determined in accordance with this declaration according to the same principles employed in this declaration at its inception and shall submit such reallocation to the owners of remaining units for amendment of this declaration.

10.6 Reconstruction and Repair: Any reconstruction and repair necessitated by condemnation shall be governed by the procedures specified herein in cases of casualty damage or destruction.

XI

MISCELLANEOUS

11.1 Amendment or Revocation: This declaration shall not be revoked nor shall any of the provisions herein be amended unless the owners representing an aggregate ownership interest of 80% or more of the general common elements and all of the holders of any mortgages or deeds of trust of record covering or affecting any or all of the condominium units consent and agree to such revocation or amendment by instruments duly recorded.

11.2 Duration: The condominium ownership created by this declaration and the condominium map shall continue until this declaration is revoked or terminated in the manner provided in paragraphs herein dealing with obsolescence, condemnation or revocation.

11.3 Mortgaging a Condominium Unit - Priority: An owner shall have the right from time to time to mortgage or encumber his interest by deed of trust, mortgage or other security instrument. A first mortgage shall be one which has first and paramount priority under applicable law. The owner of a condominium unit may create junior mortgages, liens or encumbrances on the following conditions: (a) that any such junior mortgages shall always be subordinate to all of the terms, conditions, covenants, restrictions, uses, limitations, obligations, lien for common expenses, and other obligations created by this declaration, the Certificate of Incorporation and the By-Laws of the Association; (b) that the mortgagee under any junior mortgage shall release, for the purpose of restoration of any improvements upon the mortgaged premises, all of his right, title and interest in and to the proceeds under all insurance policies upon said premises by the Association. Such release shall be furnished forthwith by a junior mortgagee upon written request of one or more of the members of the Board of Managers of the Association, and if such request is not granted, such release may be executed by the Association as attorney-in-fact for such junior mortgagee.

11.4 Compliance with Provisions of Declaration and By-Laws of the Association: Each owner shall comply strictly with the provisions of this declaration, the Certificate of Incorporation and By-Laws of the Association, and the decisions and resolutions of the Association adopted pursuant thereto as the same may be lawfully amended from time to time. Failure to comply with any of the same shall be grounds for an action to recover sums due, for damages or injunctive relief or both, and for reimbursement of all attorney's fees incurred in connection therewith, which action shall be maintainable by the Managing Agent or Board of Directors in the name of the Association on behalf of the owners or, in a proper case, by an aggrieved owner.

11.5 Registration of Mailing Address: Each owner shall register his mailing address with the Association and all notices or demands intended to be served upon any owner shall be sent by either registered or certified mail, postage prepaid, addressed in the name of the owner at such registered mailing address. All notices or demands intended to be served upon the Association shall be given by registered or certified mail, postage prepaid, to the address of the Association as designated in the By-Laws of the Association. All notices or demands to be served on mortgagees pursuant hereto shall be sent by either registered or certified mail, postage prepaid, addressed in the name of the mortgagee at such address as the mortgagee may have furnished to the Association in writing. Unless the mortgagee furnishes the Association such address, the mortgagee shall be entitled to receive none of the notices provided for in this declaration. Any notice referred to in this paragraph shall be deemed given when deposited in the United States mail in the form provided for in this paragraph.

11.6. Transfer of Declarant's Rights: Any right or any interest reserved hereby to the Declarant may be transferred or assigned by the Declarant, either separately or with one or more of such rights or interests, to any person or entity.

11.7. Owner's Obligations Continue: All obligations of the owner under and by virtue of the provisions contained in this declaration shall continue, notwithstanding that he may have leased or rented his condominium unit as provided herein, but the owner of a condominium unit shall have no obligation for expenses or other obligations accruing after he conveys such condominium unit.

11.8. Number and Gender: Whenever used herein, unless the context shall otherwise provide, the singular number shall include the plural, the plural the singular, and the use of any gender shall include all genders.

11.9. Severability: If any of the provisions of this declaration or any paragraph, sentence, clause, phrase or word or the application thereof in any circumstance be invalidated, such invalidity shall not affect the validity of the remainder of the declaration, and the application of any such provision, paragraph, sentence, clause, phrase or word in any other circumstances shall not be affected thereby.

11.10 Statute: The provisions of this declaration shall be in addition and supplemental to the Condominium Ownership Act of the State of Colorado and to all other provisions of law.

This declaration is executed this 15 day of December, 1978.
